SUMMER CONCERT SERIES RETURN DOWNTOWN JUNE 1

Free weekly event to showcase variety of music

GREENVILLE (SC) – ScanSource Reedy River Concerts return to the Peace Center Amphitheatre, offering 14 weeks of free Wednesday evening musical entertainment. The series kicks off June 1 and will feature a variety of local and regional bands throughout the season, including Honey & the Hot Rods, West End String Band, Hott Gritz and True Blues & Friends.

“ScanSource is excited to partner with the City of Greenville to present this year’s concert series,” said Christy Thompson, vice president of worldwide marketing at ScanSource.

“We’re proud to call Greenville home and being a part of Reedy River Concerts is a fun way for us to support the arts in our local community. We encourage everyone to come out and enjoy great music in a beautiful setting in downtown Greenville.”

Concerts will be held Wednesday evenings, June 1 through August 31 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Attendees are invited to come early and bring lawn chairs, blankets and a picnic. Food will also be available for purchase from food trucks and vendors who will be onsite throughout the season. Individuals consuming alcohol at the event must purchase a $1 wristband. For more information, visit events.greenvillesc.gov or follow the event on social media. A complete schedule of this season’s concerts is listed below.
