CITY OF GREENVILLE'S ACOUSTIC CAFÉ SHOWCASES PERFORMER TALENTS

Street entertainers invited to perform at five different downtown locations

GREENVILLE (SC) – Downtown strollers can enjoy a variety of street performances daily from 8 a.m. – 10 p.m. through the City of Greenville's Acoustic Café program. Musicians, magicians, jugglers and mimes are invited to schedule a time to perform at one of the following downtown locations: Piazza Bergamo, Hyatt Plaza, Court Square, the Shoeless Joe Jackson Plaza and Bowater Amphitheater in Falls Park.

"It is great to stroll down Main Street on a beautiful evening and enjoy local performers," Mayor Knox White said. "It contributes to the quality of life in downtown Greenville and encourages artistic expression, particularly among young people."

Interested Acoustic Café performers can sign up in two hour intervals. Permits are limited and must be reserved in advance. To apply for a performance permit and view program guidelines, visit the City's website at www.greenvillesc.gov. For additional information, please contact Will Young at 467-4484 or email wyoung@greenvillesc.gov.
