Greenville (SC) Children have the opportunity to sit in the driver’s seat at the Carolina First Saturday Market’s annual Touch-A-Truck day June 13 from 8 a.m. – Noon. Children of all ages can climb, sit and play on a variety of trucks on display on Main Street at McBee Avenue.

The free event will feature approximately 20 different vehicles including large trucks and heavy equipment from the City of Greenville Police, Fire and Public Works Departments and other local commercial companies. While the children are playing on the trucks, adults are invited to stroll through the market. Saturdays through October 31, the market provides shoppers with the finest in-season produce, gourmet foods and fresh-cut flowers.

The market also features live music and interactive events that appeal to a wide variety of customer interests. Market events include chef’s demonstrations, educational pieces including gardening and craft tips and healthy lifestyle tips for the entire family.
