Group Event License Instructions

Business License Division, P.O. Box 2207, Greenville, SC 29602

1. Businesses must fill out a "Group Event License Application", and pay appropriate fees. (Fees are at the end of instructions.)
2. Businesses are subject to all ordinances of the City of Greenville, including, but not limited to, the sections of the ordinance below.

Sec. 8-64. Group event license for shows and entertainment events.

(a) Shows. For purposes of this section, a show (exhibition) is a group participation event in which exhibitors display in individual booths, stalls or any other specific division of an exhibition area, for the purpose of presenting to an audience goods, wares, merchandise or services offered for sale, rent or promotional purposes or for the general good will of the exhibitors. Shows generally are of two types: trade shows and public shows.

(1) Trade shows. For purposes of this section, the term "trade show" means an exhibition or show:

- a. To which the public generally is not invited;
- b. Where those participating as exhibitors or observers generally have a common business or other interest;
- c. Where registration of exhibitors and observers is structured and admission is restricted; and
- d. Where on-floor sales are not the primary purpose.

Neither the producer, promoter or sponsor of nor an exhibitor or participant in a trade show is required to acquire any city business license.

(2) Public shows. For purposes of this section, the term "public show" means any type of consumer-oriented show (exhibition) to which the public is invited and admitted, with or without charge, and at which exhibitors present goods, wares, merchandise or services for sale, rent or promotional purposes.

a. The producer, promoter or sponsor of a public show shall acquire a city business license prior to the opening of the show. The license shall be for a period not to exceed seven consecutive days. The fee for the license shall be fixed from time to time by the city council and is set forth in the fee schedule in appendix A to this Code.

b. To obtain such a license for such a public show, the producer, promoter or sponsor shall make application to the revenue administrator at least ten days prior to the scheduled event, naming the producer, promoter or sponsor, specifying the dates and location of the event, specifying the purpose of the event, and listing the exhibitors or participants, and shall pay the required fee. Not later than five days after the close of the show, the producer, promoter or sponsor shall adjust the payment based on estimates to cover a license based on actual revenue received or number of exhibitors, whichever requires the greater payment.

c. The exhibitors in any such public show shall not be required to acquire a city business license if the producer, promoter or sponsor has obtained a license for the show. In case the producer, promoter or sponsor does not acquire a city business license for the show before the opening of the show, each exhibitor in the show shall acquire a transient merchant's city business license for the show.

(b) Entertainment events. For purposes of this section, an entertainment event includes any performance by an individual actor or performer or a cast or group of performers on a day certain, or within any seven consecutive calendar days, to which the public is invited and admitted upon payment of a charge for admission and which is designed and produced for the entertainment or enlightenment of those attending. Examples of entertainment events are an athletic game or match, a circus, a concert, a dance, a lecture, a play and a rodeo.

(1) The producer, promoter or sponsor of an entertainment event shall acquire a city business license for the event. The license shall be for a period not to exceed seven consecutive days. The fee for the license shall be fixed from time to time by the city council and is set forth in the fee schedule in appendix A to this Code.

(2) To obtain such a license for such an entertainment event, the producer, promoter or sponsor shall make application to the revenue administrator at least ten days prior to the scheduled event, naming the producer, promoter or sponsor, specifying the dates and location of the event, specifying the purpose of the event, and listing the principal actors, conductors or performers, and shall pay the required fee. No later than five days after the close of the event, the producer, promoter or sponsor shall adjust the payment based on estimates to cover a license based on actual revenue produced by the event.

(3) Charitable, educational and religious and other eleemosynary organizations exempt from federal income taxes under Internal Revenue Code section 501(c) are exempt from the requirement that a city business license be obtained for any entertainment event produced, promoted or sponsored by such organization.

(4) An annual business license may be issued for entertainment events at one facility based upon annual gross revenues.
