

Greenville Police Department's Annual Officer Allen Jacobs Summer Camp
Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Who can attend the camp?

A: The camp is open to Greenville County Schools students who will be in 5th or 6th grade in the fall of 2022. Students will be considered on a first-come, first-serve basis. School discipline records and/or grades may be used to determine eligibility. Space is limited to 60 students.

Q: What is the deadline to apply?

A: Applications must be received by Friday, May 6. Space is limited, so be sure to apply early.

Q: Where do you submit the completed information packets?

A: If your child attends Blythe Academy, AJ Whittenberg or Sterling Elementary, their completed packets may be turned in to their respective school. For all other students, completed packets must be turned in to the Greenville Police Department desk in the lobby of the Law Enforcement Center, located at 4 McGee Street. Students whose packets are incomplete will not be considered.

Q: How much does the camp cost?

A: There is no cost to attend the camp thanks to our many sponsors and volunteers.

Q: Is transportation provided to and from the camp?

A: Greenville County Schools provides transportation for camp participants. If your child needs transportation, please fill out the top section of the transportation agreement. Greenville County Schools will determine the bus routes after the application deadline.

Q: Are meals provided for camp participants?

A: A healthy, nutritionally balanced breakfast and lunch will be provided each day by Greenville County Schools.

Q: How will I know if my child is accepted into the camp?

A: If your child is accepted, you will be notified by phone and by email or letter.

Q: Who do I contact if I have more questions?

A: Please direct all questions to Yvonne Davis, GRAVITY Coordinator for the Greenville Police Department, at ydavis@greenvillesc.gov or (864) 467-6624.
